H1: VA Home Loans in New Braunfels — A Veteran-Owned Brokerage That Understands the Mission

Buying a home with a VA loan is one of the best benefits you earn through military service. But the process works best when your real estate team actually understands the program, not from a training module, but from having lived it.

Weichert Realtors — Corwin & Associates is a veteran-owned and veteran-operated brokerage in New Braunfels, Texas. Our founder, Joe Corwin, served over 20 years in the U.S. Air Force before planting roots in the Hill Country. He built a real estate practice around the same values that guided his service: do right by people, keep your word, and finish the job.

If you're an active-duty service member, veteran, or military spouse looking to buy in the New Braunfels area, we take that personally. We've been where you are.

H2: Why New Braunfels Is a Top Choice for Military Homebuyers

New Braunfels sits between San Antonio and Austin with easy access to multiple installations:

- Joint Base San Antonio (JBSA): Lackland, Randolph, and Fort Sam Houston are all within a 30-45 minute drive
- Camp Bullis: north San Antonio training site, about 35 minutes south
- Austin-area installations: accessible via the I-35 corridor

Beyond the commute, New Braunfels offers what most military families want after years of PCS moves: a community that feels permanent. The Comal and New Braunfels school districts carry Gold Performance ratings. The cost of living sits below San Antonio and well below Austin. The Guadalupe and Comal rivers, Gruene Historic District, and over 1,400 acres of city parkland give families room to breathe.

The median home price in New Braunfels is approximately $339,000 in 2026. That's well within VA loan limits and more affordable than comparable communities in the Austin corridor.

H2: How VA Home Loans Work

The VA home loan program, administered by the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs, provides eligible service members with mortgage terms that no conventional loan matches.

Key VA Loan Benefits

Feature	VA Loan	Conventional Loan
Down payment	$0	3-20%
Private mortgage insurance	None	Required below 20% down
Interest rates	Typically lower	Market rate
Closing costs	Limited by VA	Unrestricted
Funding fee	One-time (can be rolled in)	N/A
Prepayment penalty	None	Varies

Who Qualifies?

Veterans with an honorable discharge and minimum service requirements (90 days wartime, 181 days peacetime). Active-duty service members after 90 continuous days of service. National Guard and Reserve members after 6 years of service or 90 days of active-duty mobilization. Surviving spouses of service members who died in the line of duty or from a service-connected disability.

You need a Certificate of Eligibility (COE), which your lender can pull electronically in most cases. We work with VA-specialized lenders who handle this process daily.

H2: Texas Veterans Land Board (VLB) — An Extra Advantage

Texas runs a state-level home loan program specifically for veterans through the Texas Veterans Land Board (VLB), operated by the General Land Office.

The VLB provides fixed-rate home loans up to $832,750 in 15, 20, 25, or 30-year terms. Veterans with a 30% or higher VA disability rating qualify for a discounted interest rate. The program can be used alongside or instead of a federal VA loan.

That means Texas veterans have two paths to homeownership with below-market terms. Our team can help you figure out which program, or which combination, puts the most money in your pocket.

H2: VA Loan + Our Buyer Rebate Program = Maximum Savings

When you buy through Weichert Corwin, you receive our buyer rebate program at closing on top of the savings your VA loan already provides.

On a $350,000 home, that looks like this:

- VA loan: $0 down (saving $10,500-$70,000 compared to conventional)
- No PMI: roughly $175/month saved compared to conventional with less than 20% down
- Weichert Corwin rebate: $5,250 back at closing

That rebate can go toward closing costs, the VA funding fee, or any other settlement expense. Many of our veteran buyers walk into their new home having spent almost nothing out of pocket.

H2: The Home Buying Process for VA Loan Buyers

1. Get your COE and pre-approval. We connect you with a VA-specialized lender in the New Braunfels and San Antonio area. They pull your COE, review your financials, and issue a pre-approval letter, usually within 48 hours.
 2. Search for your home. With pre-approval in hand, we start looking. Browse listings on our site, tell us your must-haves, and our agents will schedule tours. We know which neighborhoods in New Braunfels, Canyon Lake, Spring Branch, and Seguin work best for military commuters.
 3. Make an offer and negotiate. We handle the offer, negotiate on your behalf, and make sure VA-specific requirements are met, including the VA appraisal. Our experience with VA transactions means we know how to structure offers that sellers accept, even in competitive situations.
 4. Inspection, appraisal, and VA compliance. VA loans require the home to meet Minimum Property Requirements (MPRs). We flag potential issues before you're under contract so there are no surprises. Our team has seen hundreds of VA appraisals and knows what passes and what doesn't.
 5. Close and collect your rebate. At the closing table, your buyer rebate appears as a credit on your closing disclosure. You sign, you get your keys, and you keep more of what you earned.

H2: Frequently Asked Questions

Can I use my VA loan benefit more than once?

Yes. VA loan benefits are reusable. Once you've paid off or sold a VA-financed home, your entitlement is restored and you can use it again.

Is there a maximum loan amount for VA loans in Texas?

For veterans with full entitlement, there is no VA loan limit as of 2020. You can borrow above the conforming limit, though lenders may have their own caps.

Do VA loans take longer to close?

Not necessarily. With an experienced lender and a real estate team that knows the VA process, closings typically take 30-45 days, the same as conventional transactions.

What if I'm PCSing to San Antonio and want to buy in New Braunfels?

We work with relocating military families regularly. We can start the search remotely, schedule virtual tours, and have everything lined up before your report date. New Braunfels is a popular choice for JBSA-assigned personnel who want more space and lower costs than living inside the SA loop.

Does the seller have to pay anything extra for a VA loan?

No. The VA limits certain closing costs that can be charged to the buyer, but sellers are not required to pay them. In practice, we negotiate seller concessions as part of the offer strategy.
